Title	Brief encounter
Author	D. R. S Lean (David R. S.) >
Description	A respectable, happily married doctor (Trevor Howard) comes to the aid of an equally upstanding housewife (Celia Johnson) when a passing train blows cinder into her eye. Thus begins a tentative romance, conducted in the tearooms and railway cafe of a small English town. David Lean's classic study of a peculiarly British affair, played with straight bat and stiff-upper lip, features Rachmaninov on the soundtrack, and garnered Oscar nominations for director, screenplay and Celia Johnson. Also included is the 20-minute documentary 'A Profile of Brief Encounter'. Region 2 DVD. Film released in 1945. Director, David Lean, producer, Noël Coward. Based on the play 'Still life' by Noel Coward.
