Questionnaire: Gastrointestinal parasites in camelids in the UK

Premises ID Number _____

For each question, please only provide information regarding the particular herd that faecal samples are being taken from. For questions that require a longer answer, please write this in the box provided.

1. What county is your farm in?

```
┌─────────────────────────────────────────────────────────────┐
│                                                               │
│                                                               │
│                                                               │
└─────────────────────────────────────────────────────────────┘
```

2. Are your camelids grazed on grass?

Yes ☐

No ☐

3. Do you keep herds of alpacas, llamas or both together?

Alpaca ☐

Llamas ☐

Both ☐

4. Are your camelids co grazed with any other animals? If yes, please tick which options apply. If you tick "other" please specify the species.

Sheep
Horses
Donkeys
Cattle
Goats
Deer
Other

5. Do you use deworming product on your camelids?

Yes

No

6. If you answered yes to question 5, please answer the following:

   a. What deworming product do you use?

   b. What is the product formulation?

   c. How do you apply the product?

   d. What dose do you use?

   e. How often to you use it?

7. Do you use anti-coccidia product on your camelids?

Yes

No

8. If you answered yes to question 7, please answer the following:

    a.   What anti-coccidia product do you use?

    b.   What is the product formulation?

    c.   How do you apply the product?

    d.   What dose do you use?

    e.   How often to you use it?

9.   If your camelid herd is co-grazed with another species, are the non-camelid species dewormed regularly?

Yes ☐

No ☐

10. If you answered yes to question 8, what product do you use on the non-camelid species and how often do you treat?

11. What size herds do you keep your animals in?

Less than or equal to 5 individuals in one herd ☐
6 – 20 individuals in one herd ☐
21+ individuals in one herd ☐

12. Please state the age range of your herd by providing the youngest and oldest ages.

13. How often do you move your herd to new pastures?

14. How long are pastures left, once a herd has been taken off, before a herd is moved back on?

15. Do you poo pick the fields in which your herds are kept? If yes, please specify how often?

Yes

No